THE GORMAN MOVEMENT.

New Yorkers Tell Its Inside History and Accuse Gorman of Breaking Faith.

By the United Press.

CHICAGO, June 22.—The New York delegation was clinging this morning to a last desperate hope of defeating the nomination of Grover Cleveland, and sought to unite the position to him on some new candidate. The name that was most frequently heard in connection with the possibility of a new combination was that of Gen. Henry W. Slocum of New York. Mr. Gorman, the New Yorkers will have nothing to say about this. The New York delegation are very indignant with the Maryland Senator, whom they charge with having brooked their combination against Cleveland two days ago, after encouraging them to believe that he would stand by them. They talk freely about Mr. Gorman, and tell some of the inside story of the relations of the New York delegation and its relation to the Hill movement.

Mr. Gorman and Mr. Brice, they say, encouraged the Hill leaders in New York State to call the midwinter Convention. Mr. Gorman promised that the Maryland Convention should be held soon after the Convention at Albany. It was part of the policy of the anti-Cleveland movement to have the Maryland Convention through the country by having his State attract for Hill, and by following this with an anti-Cleveland Convention in Maryland, which has always been a Cleveland stronghold. Mr. Gorman, the Hill men say, broke faith in this regard, and did not have the Maryland Convention called until almost every other Convention had been called and the tide had turned.

Two weeks ago Mr. Gorman met Senators Hill, Mr. Murphy, and Mr. Sheehan in New York. This meeting was chronicle in the papers, but no statement was made public. The meeting was held at the instance of Mr. Gorman to consider the opposition to Cleveland on the part of his friends. Mr. Hill and his friends to make the fight against Cleveland, Chicago, and promised them his support. It was at this time that Mr. Hill said that Mr. Hill urged him to go to Chicago, he finally consented to do so. Arriving here, he was met by Mr. Gorman and his friends, and at one of these conferences, held last Sunday, he authorized them to use his name against Cleveland. All of this, they say, they intended to keep secret from the public. When, therefore, the selfish ambition of Mr. Gorman was foreshadowed before Mr. Gorman, he was told that he could not use his name they could prevent the nomination of Mr. Cleveland on the first ballot, they did not want to do so, but they would support the nomination, and he thoroughly mediated the whole arrangement and went to Mr. Gorman's side of the question has been stated in full, but his friends in the Massachusetts legislature have not yet assented to the statement that he would permit his name to be used and he has been put up only for the purpose of losing Mr. Cleveland.

MR. CLEVELAND'S DAY.

He Spent Most of the Time Reading the Telegrams that Came to Him.

BUZZARD'S BAY, MASS., June 22.—Gray Gables, the home of ex-President Cleveland was visited by many callers to-day, newspaper men being in the majority.

Mr. Cleveland received all who called, but said that the present hardly seemed to him the proper time to talk, as whatever he might say would be liable to misrepresentation or misconstruction, and therefore he had decided to say nothing for publication.

The day was intensely hot here, and not until after 2 o'clock did breeze enough spring up to make walking possible with any comfort. At Gray tables Mr. Cleveland and his guest, Gov. Russell, spent the forenoon hours very quietly.

and northeast piazzas, and there the men sat and lounged in the shade, enjoying their cigars and such cooling breaths of air as came. The private wire to the cottage kept Mr. Cleveland in touch with the outside world, and he was in constant receipt of messages not only from friends in different parts of the country but also from the Chicago Convention.

The occupants of Gray Gables had planned to make a fishing trip to-day, but the general interest concerning Convention matters caused a postponement.

CHICAGO, June 22.—It was 2 o'clock this morning when the Committee on Credentials adjourned. The Alabama contest was decided in favor of the Jones delegates; the Kolb delegation being seated in the Convention, but with no vote. The Indian Territory contest was decided by admitting both delegations, giving each of the delegates one-half a vote. Their names are John S. Sneed, L. I. Bell, S. F. Jackson, and Sol. Jackson. The contests in the Twenty-third and Twenty-fifth districts of Pennsylvania were decided by awarding the contests.

The suit was in the First Ohio district and the 14th case was referred to a sub-committee of the committee with instructions to report to the full committee this morning. The sub-committee in this contest subsequently reported in favor of Mr. Barnard, the sitting member, and the report was adopted.

majority delegates was decided in favor of the union delegates by a unanimous vote, and John T. Meade and Henry B. Henderson were chosen as the duly accredited delegates from the Territory of Utah.

Chairman Lamb of Indiana was directed to make a unanimous report to the Convention on all the contested cases submitted to him.
